Press Statement from US State Department

MORGAN ORTAGUS, DEPARTMENT SPOKESPERSON / MAY 24, 2019

WASHINGTON, DC

The United States offers its congratulations to Narendra Modi and his National Democratic Alliance on their decisive victory in India's national elections. India's elections are the largest exercise in democracy in human history and serve as an inspiration to democracies and individuals around the world. We applaud the Indian people for turning out to vote in historic numbers and the Government of India for their exceptional execution of this massive undertaking.

The United States and India enjoy a strong strategic partnership that stands on a foundation of shared values, extensive people-to-people ties, and a commitment to a secure and prosperous Indo-Pacific region. We look forward to working with the newly elected government on a range of important issues, including expanding economic and energy ties, enhancing defense and security cooperation, countering the threat of terrorism, and enhanced collaboration in space. We are confident that the strong and upward trajectory of our partnership will continue.

II. CONGRESS

Senator Chris Coons (D-DE)

- Congratulations to the new government and the people of India for concluding the world's largest democratic election in which 600 million votes were cast for the country's leadership.
- I look forward to continuing my work to strengthen and deepen ties between the United States and India, two of the world's great democracies, in the years ahead.

Senator Mark Warner (D-VA)

Senator Kevin Thomas

- Congratulations to @narendramodi on his win in the Indian elections today. India and the U.S. share a great relationship and looking forward to continuing cooperation going forward.

Senator John Cornyn

- Congratulations @narendramodi on your historic victory. Looking forward to seeing you soon.

Senator Dan Sullivan

- I want to congratulate @PMOIndia @narendramodi on achieving a commanding victory in his reelection bid today. Modi, a steadfast friend of America and free people everywhere, has clearly earned a strong and lasting confidence among the people of India. @IndianEmbassyUS
- I look forward to working with @PMOIndia to further strengthen the economic and national security partnerships between our two nations, the world's two largest democracies. @IndianEmbassyUS

Congressman George Holding (R-NC)

- Congratulations to Prime Minister @narendramodi on his re-election. I look forward to working together to strengthen and expand the strong relationship between our two nations.

Congressman Troy Balderson (R-OH)

- Congratulations to India's Prime Minister @narendramodi on an impressive re-election victory!

Congressman Joaquin Castro (D-TX)

- Congratulations to the millions in India who participated in the democratic process & exercised their right to vote - the most fundamental civic responsibility. As the world's two largest democracies, we must continue to work together for the cause of freedom.

Congressman Scott Perry (R-PA)

- Congratulations to the Nation of India, the world's largest democracy, for its successful election. I wish luck and Godspeed to new Prime Minister Modi and to all those who were chosen by the Indian People. I look forward to the U.S. and India deepening our partnership.

Congressman Brad Sherman (D-CA)

- I want to congratulate the world's most populous democracy, India, for holding another successful election, and @PMOIndia @NarendraModi for winning reelection.

House Foreign Affairs Committee

Congressman Tom Suozzi (D-NY)

- Congratulations to @narendramodi on his re-election! The India-U.S. relationship is based upon shared values. This alliance will be very important over the next 50 years & I am looking forward to continuing our work with PM Modi & Indian government to strengthen our alliance.

Congressman Raja Krishnamoorthi

- Congratulations to Prime Minister @narendramodi on his re-election — it was truly an inspiration to see so many Indians exercise their democratic rights, and I look forward to working with PM Modi and the Indian government to strengthen the US-India partnership.

Congressman Steny Hoyer

- Congratulations @NarendraModi on winning re-election this week. I look forward to strengthening the important U.S.-India partnership.

Congressman Ami Bera

- Great job to the people of #India on their historic election. Never before have so many voted in a single democratic election. Congratulations to PM

Modi for his win and I look forward to working with his government to strengthen the ties between our two great nations.

Congressman Ro Khanna

- One lesson from Modi's win is that dynastic, establishment candidates are weak. Democrats need to make sure that our candidate against Trump can connect with people's frustration and offer a positive vision for change.

Congresswoman Sheila Jackson Lee (D-TX)

- Congratulations @narendramodi on your significant victory. This was a great effort and we are looking forward to your next visit to the United States of America

- Congratulations to @narendramodi on his decisive victory and five more years of leadership.
Our countries are natural allies with many shared values and I look forward to building on great US-India relations.

Rep. Don Bacon

- Congrats to @PMOIndia on your overwhelming reelection. We look forward to strengthening the relations between the largest democracy in the world with the oldest democracy in the world. Closer ties between our nations will bring positive results for all of our citizens.

Asm. Raj Mukherjee, Assembly Majority Whip, NJ Legislature

- Congrats to @narendramodi on a decisive reelection and to the Indian people on the largest display of participation in democracy in the history of the world. Looking forward to furthering the strong bilateral ties between our two great democracies. @IndiainNewYork

III. THINK TANKS/ ACADEMICS

Ambassador Nikki Haley , Stand for America

- India continues to have amazing potential and is a strong US partner. Congratulations to @narendramodi on your success with the elections and the direction you are taking India. We look forward to seeing our partnership continue to strengthen

Kay Coles James, President of The Heritage Foundation

- Congratulations to Indian Prime Minister @narendramodi on his re-election and to 600 million Indian citizens who voted in the largest democratic exercise in history at a time when authoritarianism is on the march. Great things are in store for the U.S.-India partnership.

David Frawley

- Five more years of Narendra Modi will bring India back into the light of its great dharmic heritage and ability to guide the world to a higher consciousness. Those who oppose Modi usually have little respect for India's culture or history before Nehru.

Ambassador Rich Verma

- Congratulations @narendramodi on a decisive election victory. Looking forward to the next chapter in US India relations, which remains the defining relationship of this century. And congrats to all who took part in this massive exercise in democracy - really something to behold.

Ambassador Hussain Haqqani

- The world's largest democracy —India— has given overwhelming support to nationalism. Here is hoping the election victory of @narendramodi brings prosperity, stability, and peace to India as well as its neighborhood.

Mark Dubowitz, CEO, The Foundation of Defense of Democracies

- Huge victory for @narendramodi in the Indian elections. Here's to an even stronger U.S.-India relationship, which has deep bipartisan support here, and multiparty support over there. बधाई हो
